DETAILED ACTION

Due to the complex nature of the claims, no request for oral election is being made. Please see MPEP 812.01.

Elections/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.49, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Lack of Unity – Three Groups of Claims

Group I, claims 1-4, and 13-15, drawn to a method of suppressing or eliminating tumor cells by administering a therapeutically effective amount of neutral soluble glucan and at least one anti-tumor antibody.

Group II, claims 5-8, drawn to a method of treating a neoplastic cell, comprising administering a therapeutically effective dose of a neutral soluble glucan.

Group III, claims 9-12, drawn to a method of immunomodulation in which a shift from Th2 response to a Th1 response is induced by administering a therapeutically effective amount of whole glucan particles.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical feature. For instance, claim 1 is directed to a method of suppressing or eliminating tumor cells, whereas claim 5 is directed to a method of treating a neoplastic cell. In addition, claim 9 is directed to a method of immunodulation. Also a method of treatment using a neutral soluble glucan is not novel (See USPGPub 2004/0014715). Therefore, a holding of lack of unity amongst the inventions of Groups I, II and III is proper.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election with traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Election/Restriction Proper

MPEP 809.02(d) states “[w]here only generic claims are presented, no restriction can be required except in those applications where the generic claims recite such multiplicity of species that an unduly extensive and burdensome search is necessary.” Here, the claims recited such a multiplicity of species that an unduly extensive and burdensome search would be necessary if all of the claimed species were to be examined simultaneously.

The inventions above are patentably distinct. The search for each of the above inventions is not co-extensive particularly with regard to the literature search. Burden consists not only of specific searching of classes and subclasses, but also of searching multiple databases for foreign references and literature searches. Burden also resides in the examination of independent claim sets for clarity, enablement and double patenting issues. Further, a reference that would anticipate the invention of one group would not necessarily anticipate or even make obvious the other group. Finally, the consideration for patentability is different in each case. Thus, it would be undue burden to examine all of the above inventions in one application and the restriction for examination purposes as indicated above is deemed proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated above is proper.

Inventorship Notice

Applicant is reminded upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
